

NN, Inc. To Attend 2016 Hannover Messe

April 20, 2016

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn., April 20, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- NN, Inc., (NASDAQ: NNBR) a diversified industrial company, announced today that it will attend the 2016 Hannover Messe trade show event in Hannover, Germany, April 25-29.

The world's largest trade fair for industrial technology, the Hannover Messe brings together thought leaders from industries around the globe to discuss the latest manufacturing innovations and technologies. The United States is making its debut as the Partner Country for the event; representatives from around the world will turn their spotlight toward U.S. manufacturing companies and exhibitors.

NN will be displaying its global product and process platform that delivers engineered solutions for several end-markets, including industrial technologies, automotive, aerospace, medical devices and electrical.

Visitors to the NN display (Hall 4, Stand A21), will be able to see a full range of our product capabilities: complex molded and machined plastics, precision machining, progressive metal stamping, additive manufacturing and precision rolling elements to name a few. In addition visitors will be able to speak with our technical team about collaborating on precision components and assemblies that utilize our technologies and multiple industry expertise.

NN is proud to be participating in the Hannover Messe and to support the United States as the host country for this year's event. As a U.S. based company with 42 facilities around the world, NN is committed to providing our customers engineered solutions where ever they are needed for a variety of end markets.

NN, Inc., a diversified industrial company, combines advanced engineering and production capabilities with in-depth materials science expertise to design and manufacture high-precision components and assemblies for a variety of markets on a global basis. Headquartered in Johnson City, Tennessee, NN has 42 manufacturing plants in North America, Western Europe, Eastern Europe, South America and China.
