

NN, Inc. Receives Key Supplier Award

May 20, 2016

JOHNSON CITY, Tenn., May 20, 2016 /PRNewswire/ -- NN, Inc., (Nasdaq: NNBR) a diversified industrial company, announced today it has received a key supplier award from Brose, a leading supplier of mechatronic systems and electric drives.

In the category of Mechanical Components, NN's Autocam Precision Components Group was recognized for their superior quality performance and the level of customer service.

NN has been providing complex precision components solutions to Brose for over 10 years. Utilizing its core process technologies and collaborating closely with Brose, the latest projects have been very successful in providing the engineered process solutions Brose required while exceeding their expectations on quality.

"It is an honor to receive this award that validates our successful partnership with Brose and we are looking forward to our continued collaboration with them," commented Warren Veltman, Senior Vice President and General Manager of NN's Autocam Precision Components Group. "Providing engineered solutions that exceed customer expectations is the foundation of everything we do, and the long-term partnership with Brose is a result of that approach."

NN, Inc., a diversified industrial company combines advanced engineering and production capabilities with in-depth materials science expertise to design and manufacture high-precision components and assemblies for a variety of markets on a global basis. Headquartered in Johnson City, Tennessee, NN has 42 manufacturing plants in North America, Western Europe, Eastern Europe, South America and China.
